

Fill in the blanks.

- The MAIN job of adverbs in the sentence is to _____.
- Adverbs answer these four general questions about verbs.

- Adverb phrases and clauses placed _____ that interrupt the subject require a _____ to separate them from the rest of the sentence.

Circle the form of each underlined adverb.

- Parades are usually held to celebrate a special day.
word(s) prepositional phrase phrase of time infinitive phrase subordinate clause
- For example, many cities have parades on St. Patrick's Day.
word(s) prepositional phrase phrase of time infinitive phrase subordinate clause
- A very famous parade is held every year on New Year's Day in Pasadena.
word(s) prepositional phrase phrase of time infinitive phrase subordinate clause
- Floats are decorated entirely with flowers because Pasadena is famous for its rose gardens.
word(s) prepositional phrase phrase of time infinitive phrase subordinate clause

Write all the adverbs that modify the underlined verb on the line.

- In this parade, you might actually see a giraffe that is made out of wheat grass and daisies.

- Another famous New Year's parade happens in San Francisco's Chinatown every winter.

- However, this parade does not happen on January 1st because it celebrates Chinese New Year.

Write the specified form of adverb to modify the underlined verb. Add commas if necessary.

- Evan studied for two months _____.
infinitive phrase
- _____ the team will run two miles today.
subordinate clause
- My dog _____ hides his bone under the couch.
word
- _____ the teen driver received his first traffic ticket.
prepositional phrase

Fill in the blanks. ANSWERS

- The MAIN job of adverbs in the sentence is to _____ modify verbs _____.
- Adverbs answer these four general questions about verbs.
_____ how _____ where _____ when _____ why _____
- Adverb phrases and clauses placed at the beginning of the sentence that interrupt the subject require a _____ comma _____ to separate them from the rest of the sentence.

Circle the form of each underlined adverb. ANSWERS

- Parades are usually held to celebrate a special day.
word(s) prepositional phrase phrase of time infinitive phrase subordinate clause
- For example, many cities have parades on St. Patrick's Day.
word(s) prepositional phrase phrase of time infinitive phrase subordinate clause
- A very famous parade is held every year on New Year's Day in Pasadena.
word(s) prepositional phrase phrase of time infinitive phrase subordinate clause
- Floats are decorated entirely with flowers because Pasadena is famous for its rose gardens.
word(s) prepositional phrase phrase of time infinitive phrase subordinate clause

Write all the adverbs that modify the underlined verb on the line. ANSWERS

- In this parade, you might actually see a giraffe that is made out of wheat grass and daisies.
In this parade, actually _____
- Another famous New Year's parade happens in San Francisco's Chinatown every winter.
in San Francisco's Chinatown, every winter _____
- However, this parade does not happen on January 1st because it celebrates Chinese New Year.
however, not, on January 1st, because it celebrates Chinese New Year _____

Write the specified form of adverb to modify the underlined verb. Add commas if necessary. ANSWERS WILL VARY

- Evan studied for two months _____ to pass the bar exam _____.
infinitive phrase
- _____ Unless it rains, _____ the team will run two miles today. (comma)
subordinate clause
- My dog _____ sometimes _____ hides his bone under the couch.
word
- _____ On his birthday, _____ the teen driver received his first traffic ticket. (comma)
prepositional phrase

Fill in the blanks. SCAFFOLDING SUGGESTIONS—Provide a word bank.

how	when	modify verbs
comma	why	at the beginning of a sentence where

Circle the form of each underlined adverb. SCAFFOLDING SUGGESTIONS—Provide a hint.

4. Parades are usually held to celebrate a special day.
It's the phrase with "TO" followed by a verb
5. For example, many cities have parades on St. Patrick's Day.
It's the phrase that starts with one part of speech and ends with a noun
6. A very famous parade is held every year on New Year's Day in Pasadena.
It's the phrase that is built with a noun about time
7. Floats are decorated entirely with flowers because Pasadena is famous for its rose gardens.
It's has its own subject and verb

Write all the adverbs that modify the underlined verb on the line. SCAFFOLDING SUGGESTIONS—Provide a hint.

8. In this parade, you might actually see a giraffe that is made out of wheat grass and daisies.
There are 2, a prepositional phrase and a word
9. Another famous New Year's parade happens in San Francisco's Chinatown every winter.
There are 2, a prepositional phrase and a phrase of time
10. However, this parade does not happen on January 1st because it celebrates Chinese New Year.
There are 4, two words, a prepositional phrase, and a subordinate clause

Write the specified form of adverb to modify the underlined verb. Add commas if necessary. SCAFFOLDING SUGGESTIONS—Provide the first words.

11. Evan studied for two months _____ to pass _____.
infinitive phrase
12. _____ Because _____ the team will run two miles today.
subordinate clause
13. My dog _____ hides his bone under the couch.
word
14. _____ For _____ the teen driver received his first traffic ticket.
prepositional phrase